

Erat item
sua reconu
muni facere
omnes qui diligens cari

gaudebant iocunda qui iusticia suis reuerentis
et facerent ad illi dies
consolaciones ire.

All gifts of nature and grace have been given to us on loan. Their ownership is not ours, but always God's.

Meister Eckhart (1260-1327)

You cannot know God by means of any creature science, nor by any means which relies upon your own wisdom....If you are to know God in His divinity, your own knowledge must become as pure ignorance, in which you forget yourself and every other creature.

Meister Eckhart (1260-1327)

All that a man has here externally in multiplicity is intrinsically One. Here all blades of grass, wood and stone, all things are One. This is at their deepest depth.... If the soul knows God in creatures, night falls. If it sees how they have their being in God, morning breaks. But if it sees the Being that is in God himself alone, it is high noon! See! This is what one ought to desire with mad fervor, that all his life should become Being.

Meister Eckhart (1260-1327)